

Intermodality between High Speed Rail and Urban Transport Seminar

March 9th, 2010
São Paulo – Brazil

March 9th, 2010
8:00 - 9:00 Registration
9:00 - 10:30	Opening session Introduction and Welcome <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Jean-Pierre Loubinoux, General Director (International Union of Railways (UIC)) Víctor Raúl Martínez, Latin America Division Chairman (UITP) Executive board UITP Latin America Jayme Domingo Filho - Vice-presidente Engenheiros e Arquitetos de Metrô – AEAMESP Sergio Passos Aveleda, Presidente, Companhia Paulista de Trens Metropolitanos (CPTM)
Keynote Speaker – The modern public transport: how to combine different technologies? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ignácio Barrón, High Speed Sector Director (International Union of Railways - UIC) Tony Dufays, Director of Regional Offices (International Association of Public Transport - UITP)
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 - 13:00	Session 1: Urban Transport Chair: Rogerio Pires, Division Manager Voith Turbo (Brasil) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Monterrey Case - Mexico: economic viability of a rail system compared to other systems - Alfonso Reyes, Operations Director (Metrorrey - Mexico) Recent development of light Metros in Spain: an example of sustainable transport. Light Rails: Spanish cities case - Aurelio Rojo Garrido, General Secretary, Alamys (Spain) Tramway: advantages to combine different technologies - Olivier Hauchard, Director (Translohr - France)
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch (*)
14:00 - 16:00	Session 2: Highspeed Train Chair: TBC <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sao Paulo - Rio de Janeiro project: high speed rail in Brazil - Hélio Mauro França, Executive Superintendent (National Land Transport Agency - ANTT) High speed main principle and overview around the world - Naoto Yanase, High Speed Director (International Union of Railways - UIC) / Japanese Railways Representative in Paris Case study: high speed in Japan - Takao Nishiyama, East Japan Rail Office at New York

16 :00 - 17:30	Session 3: Intermodality – what kind of integration we need urban transport and long distance service? Chair: Joubert Flores, International Affairs Director, Metro Rio (Brasil) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Transportation planning in the city of Sao Paulo: integration between several modes – Marcos Kassab, Planning Director (Sao Paulo Metro - Brazil) Stations for integration - Altair Moreira, General Director (Socicam - Brazil) High speed and big cities - Javier Bustinduy, General Director (BB & J - Spain) High speed : impacts and development, Fabio Tadeu Alves, Senior Adviser (Association of Engineers and Architects of Metro - AEAMESP)
17:30 - 18:00	Conclusion Why Latin America needs this type of investment? Chair: Jurandir Fernandes, Honorary Vice President of UITP <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Vicente Abate, President (Brazilian Railway Industry Association - ABIFER) Claudio Senna – Vice president (National Association of Public Transport - ANTP) Ignácio Barrón, High Speed Sector Director (International Union of Railways - UIC) Tony Dufays, Director of Regional Offices (International Association of Public Transport - UITP)